ABSTRACT

This annotated bibliography lists approximately 190 interdenominational books; books of interest to a single denomination are not included. The list was selectively compiled to provide a basic collection of religious books that will serve as resources in 20 subject areas. The material has been checked over and approved by representatives of several diverse denominations. Each entry provides a book's availability, price, and publisher, and a brief annotation. Information included in these entries were checked with "Books in Print" at the time of publication. Some of the titles are marked with an asterisk, which indicates that they are felt to offer particularly important contributions to church libraries, and it is suggested that these titles be considered first in situations with limited funds for acquisitions. Major categories listed are: (1) library resources; (2) Bible versions; (3) Bible study; (4) Christian faith and doctrine; (5) Christian living; (6) prayer and devotional life; (7) devotional classics; (8) the nature of the church; (9) Christian education; (10) church history; (11) world religions; (12) Christian ethics; (13) marriage and family life; (14) aging; (15) death and dying; (16) religious psychology; (17) religious sociology; (18) holidays; (19) biography; and (20) children's books. INTRODUCTION

Any bibliography such as this, restricted to some 190 titles, must be incomplete in more than one direction. The interdenominational purpose has been considered in the choosing of titles; therefore, books of interest to a single denomination have been omitted.

This list has been selectively compiled to provide a solid basic collection of religious books which will serve as resource materials in the major categories listed.

You will find an asterisk (*) in front of some titles. These books are felt to be special in that they offer something very important to the church library. It is suggested that these titles be considered first where there might be limited funds.

The material compiled has been checked over and approved by representatives of several diverse denominations. Information (availability, price, etc.) was checked with Books in Print at the time of this publication. Responsibility cannot be accepted for subsequent changes. Titles may go out of print and others may have paperback editions available.

Your comments and suggestions for future revisions are invited. Write to me in care of CSLA, P.O. Box 19357, Portland, 97219.

A BASIC BOOK LIST FOR CHURCH LIBRARIES

LIBRARY RESOURCES

*CHURCH AND SYNAGOGUE LIBRARY RESOURCES, compiled by Rachel Kohl and Dorothy Rodda. Fourth Edition. CSLA, 1984. $3.95 pb.
Provides a basic list of the resources currently available to help librarians and library committees in organizing and operating effective congregational libraries. Includes descriptions of other CSLA publications which will be helpful and are available to the church librarian.

INSIDE TWENTY-FIVE CLASSIC CHILDREN'S STORIES: DISCOVERING VALUES AT HOME OR IN SCHOOL, by Miriam J. Johnson. Paulist, 1986. $4.95 pb.
Provides summaries and interpretations of stories along with "Conversation starters" at the end of each chapter to encourage adults and children to talk together about values and element of faith.

CHILDREN'S LITERATURE FOR ALL GOD'S CHILDREN, by Virginia Coffin Thomas and Betty Davis Miller. John Knox, 1986. $11.95 pb.
An annotated resource for teaching, learning and worship. Parents and educators, as well as church librarians will find a wealth of information here.

TRAILING CLOUDS OF GLORY: SPIRITUAL VALUES IN CHILDREN'S BOOKS, by Madeleine L'Engle with Avery Brooke, anthologist. Westminster, 1985. $12.95.
This well-known author focuses her creative eye on literature for and about children. She brings together a host of characters and situations in great literature which appeal to young readers. The selections will lead the reader to a sharper sense of values and a renewed faith.

BIBLE VERSIONS

*GOOD NEWS BIBLE: THE BIBLE IN TODAY'S ENGLISH VERSION
The American Bible Society's translation by a team of scholars was completed in 1976. It attempts to "set forth the Biblical content and message in standard, everyday, natural form of English."

THE NEW OXFORD ANNOTATED BIBLE WITH THE APOCRYPHA, Expanded Edition, RSV. Oxford University Press, 1978.
A truly ecumenical work, this "Common Bible" contains 3 and 4 Maccabees and Psalm 151 which completes the canon of the Septuagint Version. This is the one Bible approved by Protestant, Catholic and Eastern Orthodox churches.

*HOLY BIBLE — KING JAMES VERSION
The authorized English version published in 1611, which has remained the most popular version right into modern times.

NEW ENGLISH BIBLE WITH APOCRYPHA
A translation from the original tongues by representatives of the major Protestant bodies of Great Britain, published in 1970 as the authorized version.

THE NEW JERUSALEM BIBLE
Originally published in France by a group of Catholic scholars, the comparable English translation from the original tongues appeared in 1966, revised in 1985.

THE NEW TESTAMENT IN MODERN ENGLISH, by J.B. Phillips.
A popular paraphrase of the New Testament, by a minister of the Church of England.

BIBLE STUDY

THE HISTORY OF THE BIBLE IN ENGLISH, by Frederick F. Bruce. Third edition. Oxford, 1978. $8.95 pb.
A comprehensive study of the various translations of the Bible into English. Traces the story from its beginnings to publication of the Good News Bible.

THE BIBLE SPEAKS TO YOU, by Robert McAfee Brown. Westminster, 1985. $8.95 pb.
A lively, readable discussion of the origin, message and use of the Bible. Especially recommended for young people.

*EERDMANS' HANDBOOK TO THE BIBLE, edited by David and Pat Alexander. Revised edition. 1983. $24.95.
A significant Bible reference work containing information relevant to the reader who wants to increase his understanding. Good illustrations and reference material.

*THE LAND & PEOPLE JESUS KNEW, written and illustrated by J. Robert Teringo. Bethany House, 1985. $24.95.
A comprehensive handbook on life in first-century Palestine. Provides a wealth of interesting, informative and inspiring facts about life in New Testament times for students of all ages.

*BIBLICAL ARCHAEOLOGY, by G. Ernest Wright. Revised edition. Westminster, 1963. $27.50.
An excellent, lavishly illustrated aid to the understanding of the Bible and Bible lands.

ABINGDON BIBLE HANDBOOK, by Edward P. Blair. Revised edition. 1982. $23.95 pb.
An informative resource guide to help the lay person and student to interpret the Bible for themselves. Contains illustrations, maps and suggested readings.

*THEOLOGICAL WORD BOOK OF THE BIBLE, edited by Alan Richardson. Macmillan, 1962. $7.95 pb.
230 articles bring scholarly resources to bear on the meaning of the key words of the Bible.

THE BIBLE AS HISTORY: A CONFIRMATION OF THE BOOK OF BOOKS, by Werner Keller. Revised edition. Translated by William Neil. Bantam, 1974. $4.95 pb.
Archaeology and science adventure 4000 years into the past to document the actual events of the Bible.

BURROWS ON THE DEAD SEA SCROLLS, by Millar Burrows. Baker Book House, 1978. $11.95 pb.
Two significant volumes on the story and implications of this discovery are reprinted here — The Dead Sea Scrolls (1955) and More Light on the Dead Sea Scrolls (1958). The discovery of the Dead Sea Scrolls constitutes the richest find of early Biblical material to be made in recent history.

THE CHRISTIAN VIEW OF SCIENCE AND SCRIPTURE, by Bernard Ramm. Eerdmans, 1954. $9.95 pb.
A philosophical attempt to make science and Christianity compatible. Provides helpful commentary on biblical texts and discusses the modern sciences.

THE INTERPRETER'S BIBLE, edited by George A. Buttrick. Abingdon, 1957. 12 volumes. $22.95 each ($260.00 set).
Contains comprehensive commentary, complete and lengthy introductions to each book, the AV and RSV texts, exegetical and expository notes and bibliography.

THE INTERPRETER'S DICTIONARY OF THE BIBLE, edited by George A. Buttrick and Keith R. Crim. Abingdon, 1976. 5 volumes. $112.00.
By far the best and most comprehensive dictionary of the Bible in English. Written by eminent scholars. Provides definitive articles on every major doctrine and theological concept. Well illustrated. Helpful bibliographies. The fifth (supplementary) volume, published in 1976 gives up-to-date information on recent studies.

*STRONG'S EXHAUSTIVE CONCORDANCE OF THE BIBLE, edited by James Strong. Abingdon, 1980. Revised edition. $23.95.
A classic reference since 1894, this new edition is the most complete concordance available today. It introduces the "Key Word Comparison" of selected words and phrases in the KJV with five leading modern translations: RSV, NEB, JB, NAS, and NIV.

NEW TESTAMENT ILLUSTRATIONS, by Clifford M. Jones. Cambridge, 1966. $27.95 ($12.95 pb.)

Explains in non-technical language the various trends and movements in modern Protestant theology — includes Barth, Brunner, Neibuhr, and Tillich.

THE PROMISE OF THE SPIRIT, by William Barclay. Westminster, 1978. $6.95 pb.
A brief, well-written study of the Holy Spirit.

HEREIN IS LOVE, by Reuel L. Howe. Judson, 1961. $3.95 pb.
Deals with the biblical doctrine of love in its bearing on personality, parenthood, teaching, and all other human relationships. Describes the true significance of the Christian fellowship and how it can come about and exist.

THE FOUR LOVES, by C. S. Lewis. HarBraceJ, 1971. $2.95 pb.
In his own inimitable way, Lewis discourses on the four basic kinds of human love — affection, friendship, erotic love, and the love of God.

THE VISIONARY CHRISTIAN: 131 READINGS FROM C. S. LEWIS, selected and edited by Chad Walsh. Macmillan, 1981. $10.95.
A collection from Lewis's fiction and poetry, all illustrating Christian ideas, showing us a Christianity alive with promise.

THE CASE FOR CHRISTIANITY, by Colin Chapman. Eerdmans, 1984. $12.95 pb.
Addresses basic human questions and provides information that will help believers understand how Christianity provides the key to the meaning of life. Attractive illustrations and format in handbook style.

AND THEN COMES THE END, by David Ewert. Herald, 1980. $7.95 pb.
A basic and thorough discussion of the "blessed hope" of the Christian church as is revealed in the New Testament.

CHRISTIAN LIVING

THE MARTYRED CHRISTIAN: 160 READINGS FROM DIETRICH BONHOEFFER, selected and edited by Joan Winmill Brown. Macmillan, 1983. $6.95 pb.
An excellent introduction to the writings of the courageous young German theologian who was executed by the Nazis. His teachings about Christian "discipleship" and "grace" have become recognized as classic.

LIFE TOGETHER, by Dietrich Bonhoeffer. Harper & Row, 1976. $6.95 pb.
Bonhoeffer's experiences of Christian community in a group of fugitives from the Nazis are translated into the meaning of Christian fellowship under "normal" circumstances.

THE WHOLE PERSON IN A BROKEN WORLD, by Paul Tournier. Harper & Row, 1981. $6.95 pb.
The renowned Swiss physician diagnoses the symptoms of modern man's sickness, and prescribes the only message of help and healing — the Gospel.

THE NEWBORN CHRISTIAN, by J. B. Phillips. Macmillan, 1984. $5.95 pb.
This outstanding anthology of 114 selections will help recover the vital newborn feeling of Christianity's first century by using as model and inspiration the birth, life and death of Jesus himself.

LIGHT FOR THE JOURNEY: LIVING THE TEN COMMANDMENTS, by Ernest J. Lewis. Word, 1986. $10.95.
In a very readable style, the author presents insights on the Commandments and living with the dilemmas of the modern world. Discussion questions with each chapter provide helps for study groups or individual readers.

A LISTENING EAR: REFLECTIONS ON CHRISTIAN CARING, by Paul Tournier. Augsburg, 1986. $7.95 pb.
A distillation of the thinking of Tournier, focusing on Christian caring.

THE IRRATIONAL SEASON, by Madeleine L'Engle. Harper, 1977. $12.95 ($7.95 pb.)
Here is a gifted woman's journey through the seasons of the year — and the heart — to the fullness of Christian life. Much of the content is based on the Beatitudes.

PRAYER AND DEVOTIONAL LIFE

*PRAYER, by George A. Buttrick. Abingdon, 1977. $1.95 pb.
A classic on the subject of prayer, republished after many years of being out of print. It will give a better understanding of how prayer can be a powerful force in our lives.

PRAYER, by Ole Christian Hallesby. Augsburg, 1975. $4.50 pb.
An excellent study on the doctrine of prayer, with an analysis of its difficulties, misuses, and varying forms. Practical and devotional.

REACHING OUT: THE THREE MOVEMENTS OF THE SPIRITUAL LIFE, by Henri J. M. Nouwen. Doubleday, 1975. $9.95.
A leading spiritual writer lays out an incomparable plan for living a life in and with the Spirit and achieving the ultimate goal of that life: union with God.

*PRAYERS, by Michel Quoist. Sheed & Ward, 1985. $6.95 pb.
A rare collection of prayers, reflecting the author's concerns, his outlook on reality, and his own deeply Christian spirituality.

*PRAYER AND PERSONAL RELIGION, by John B. Coburn. Walker & Co., 1985. $8.95 pb.
A guide both to the understanding and the practice of prayer and an explanation of its relation to personal religious growth.

THE GOD NAMED HALLOWED, by John Killinger. Abingdon, 1988. $6.95 pb.
In clear and lively style, an outstanding preacher focuses on each phrase of the Lord's Prayer, giving new insights into this important old prayer.

THE NEW BOOK OF CHRISTIAN PRAYERS, edited by Tony Castle. Crossroad, 1986. $18.95.
Over 1000 prayers — new and classic — from a wide range of writers. Useful for personal devotions and especially helpful as a reference source for most all occasions. Arranged thematically with two indexes.
